

•

- Academic support
- Organisation and management
- Learning resources
- Student voice
- Mental wellbeing services
- Freedom of Expression

You can find UCL's full NSS 2024 questionnaire here.

In addition to the core NSS questionnaire, UCL also asks students two UCL specific questions, which appear after completing the core questionnaire:

- I would recommend UCL to others thinking of studying here
- I feel prepared for my next steps after UCL (i.e. I have a job, further study place or other activity confirmed)

This year, UCL will also be including two extra, optional question banks from the Office for Students (OFS) in the survey:

- Students' Union (Association or Guild)
- Social Opportunities

Results for optional questions are not publicly available and

Mid / late August	Internal release of anonymised open text comments.
-------------------	----------------------------------------------------

Response rate updates

You will be emailed weekly on Tuesdays from 17 January 2024 and the NSS Response Rates Dashboard will be updated with your faculty, departmental and programme response rates. Please note that

- Student is deceased.
- Student has serious health difficulties (including mental health difficulties) where seeking a response may be distressing for the student.
- Student has 'opted out', i.e. asked that their contact details not be passed on (the Student Partnership team will notify all students that their details will be passed on for the purposes of NSS)

- Ask Heads of Departments, programme directors etc. to send an e

- Things that have changed in this department as a result of previous years' feedback are: list any concrete examples of improvements at departmental level, or UCL-wide examples such as [those displayed here].

* See response rate reward scheme p.7

Suggested social media message

Calling all UCL final year undergraduates: take 10 minutes to tell us about your experience of your degree programme and UCL! Take the survey now at www.thestudentsurvey.com [accompany with NSS image] Your views help shape the future of education at UCL.

Or retweet an NSS post from @UCL_teaching